

The Hut Group Ltd

Building Projects Group Ltd provided new Retail Store. Luxury online retailer Coggles.com launched its brand-new flagship store in Alderley Edge. The idea is to display a full lifestyle throughout each section, taking you from clothing to homeware.

Location: Alderley Edge

Project: Conversion of a NatWest bank to retail space

Duration: 10 weeks

Challenge

The store occupies a former bank, a building with character and history that needed to be preserved whilst also creatively repurposing some of the unique features. A mixture of wood, marble and concrete floors run throughout the building, together with the original parquet. The challenge for Building Projects Group was the wide scope of works required and programming in all trades to meet the grand opening.

- Cellar conversion
- New kitchens
- Bespoke metal shelving
- Parquet, marble, stone and wood restoration.
- Decoration
- Doors
- Specialist finishes

Benefits

Building Projects Group completed this unique high-end store ahead of schedule. The Hut Group were particularly impressed with the high standard of workmanship and attention to detail.

Careful planning and keeping the client informed regularly was a key factor for the successful completion. The overall project has become a perfect platform in which to showcase their global luxury brands and hopefully will become one of the most prestigious retail destinations in the North West.

Solution

Building Projects Group Scope of works included:

- Design development
- Health and Safety Management
- Projects Management
- Asbestos removal
- New MF Ceilings
- Full Mechanical Works
- Full Electrical Works

